Trade Policy Reviews

Trade Policy Reviews provide unrivalled coverage of the latest trade developments in the WTO's 153 member countries.

Each Review provides a detailed account of the country's trade policies and practices, describing trade policy-making institutions and the latest economic situation. The WTO's analysis of the country's trade policies is complemented by a policy statement by the country under review. As well as reviewing measures directly affecting imports, each Review provides a sector-by-sector account of access to domestic markets.

Over 15 Trade Policy Reviews are produced each year and are available in English, French and Spanish. Co-published with Bernan Press.

World Trade Report

Published annually, the World Trade Report takes an in-depth look at the latest trends in trade, trade policy issues and the multilateral trading system. The Report provides an overview of trade developments over the past year and offers insightful analysis into specific aspects of world trade.

In 2009 the Report focused on how trade can remain open in times of crisis. In particular, it looked at how countries make use of escape clauses in trade agreements and the role that these measures play. Other themes for the World Trade Report have included "Trade in a globalizing world" and "Six decades of multilateral trade cooperation".

International Trade Statistics

International Trade Statistics is the Number One source for data on world trade. Detailed tables provide comprehensive statistics on the world's leading exporters and importers, with information broken down by region and by country. Trade statistics are also provided by product and by commercial services.

With data dating back to 1948, this publication provides unparalleled insights into the trends for world trade over the past six decades. Hundreds of statistical tables and highlight sections illustrating some of the key trends help to make International Trade Statistics an invaluable reference tool for businesses, analysts and anyone wanting to know more about international trade.

Trade Profiles

Trade Profiles provides a country-by-country breakdown of trade flows and trade policy measures for WTO members and countries seeking to join the WTO. With information provided in a standardized format for each country, this publication is an invaluable quick reference tool for anyone looking for essential trade statistics.

The data provided for each country includes basic economic indicators (such as GDP), trade policy indicators (such as tariffs and import duties), merchandise trade flows (broken down by broad product categories and major origins and destinations), commercial trade flows (with a breakdown by major components) and industrial property indicators (such as annual number of patents granted).

Presented in a handy format, with one page devoted to each country, Trade Profiles offers a concise overview of global trade.

World Tariff Profiles

World Tariff Profiles provides invaluable information on market access. The listing of the tariffs imposed by each WTO member on its imports is complemented with an analysis of the market access conditions it faces in its major export markets.

The publication provides a comprehensive picture of tariffs. Presented in a handy format, it offers both summary tables and country-by-country breakdowns, with one page devoted to each country. The standardized presentation allows for analyses and comparisons between countries and sectors and between bound and applied duties for WTO members.

This joint publication of the World Trade Organization (WTO), the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) and the International Trade Centre (ITC) is aimed at both specialists and non-specialists alike.
